

The North Euston Hotel

On the Esplanade, Fleetwood at your service...

Congratulations on your forthcoming Wedding

The North Euston opened its doors as a hotel in 1841 and has welcomed many a happy couple across the red carpet and into its grand entrance since then.

We treat each wedding as an individual - Your Wedding, Your Way! You can rely on our experience, whether it's a small intimate gathering or a grand affair - we're happy to help create your perfect day.

Both our Vantini and Rossall Room have been approved to hold civil ceremonies enabling you to hold the whole celebration for between 25 and 110 guests all under one roof!

At the North Euston we also have 54 en - suite bedrooms, offering both comfort and convenience for any of your friends and relatives who wish to stay.

The information following covers civil ceremonies, wedding breakfast and buffet menus, drinks packages and additional services. If you would like any further details or can't find what you're looking for please don't hesitate to contact us.

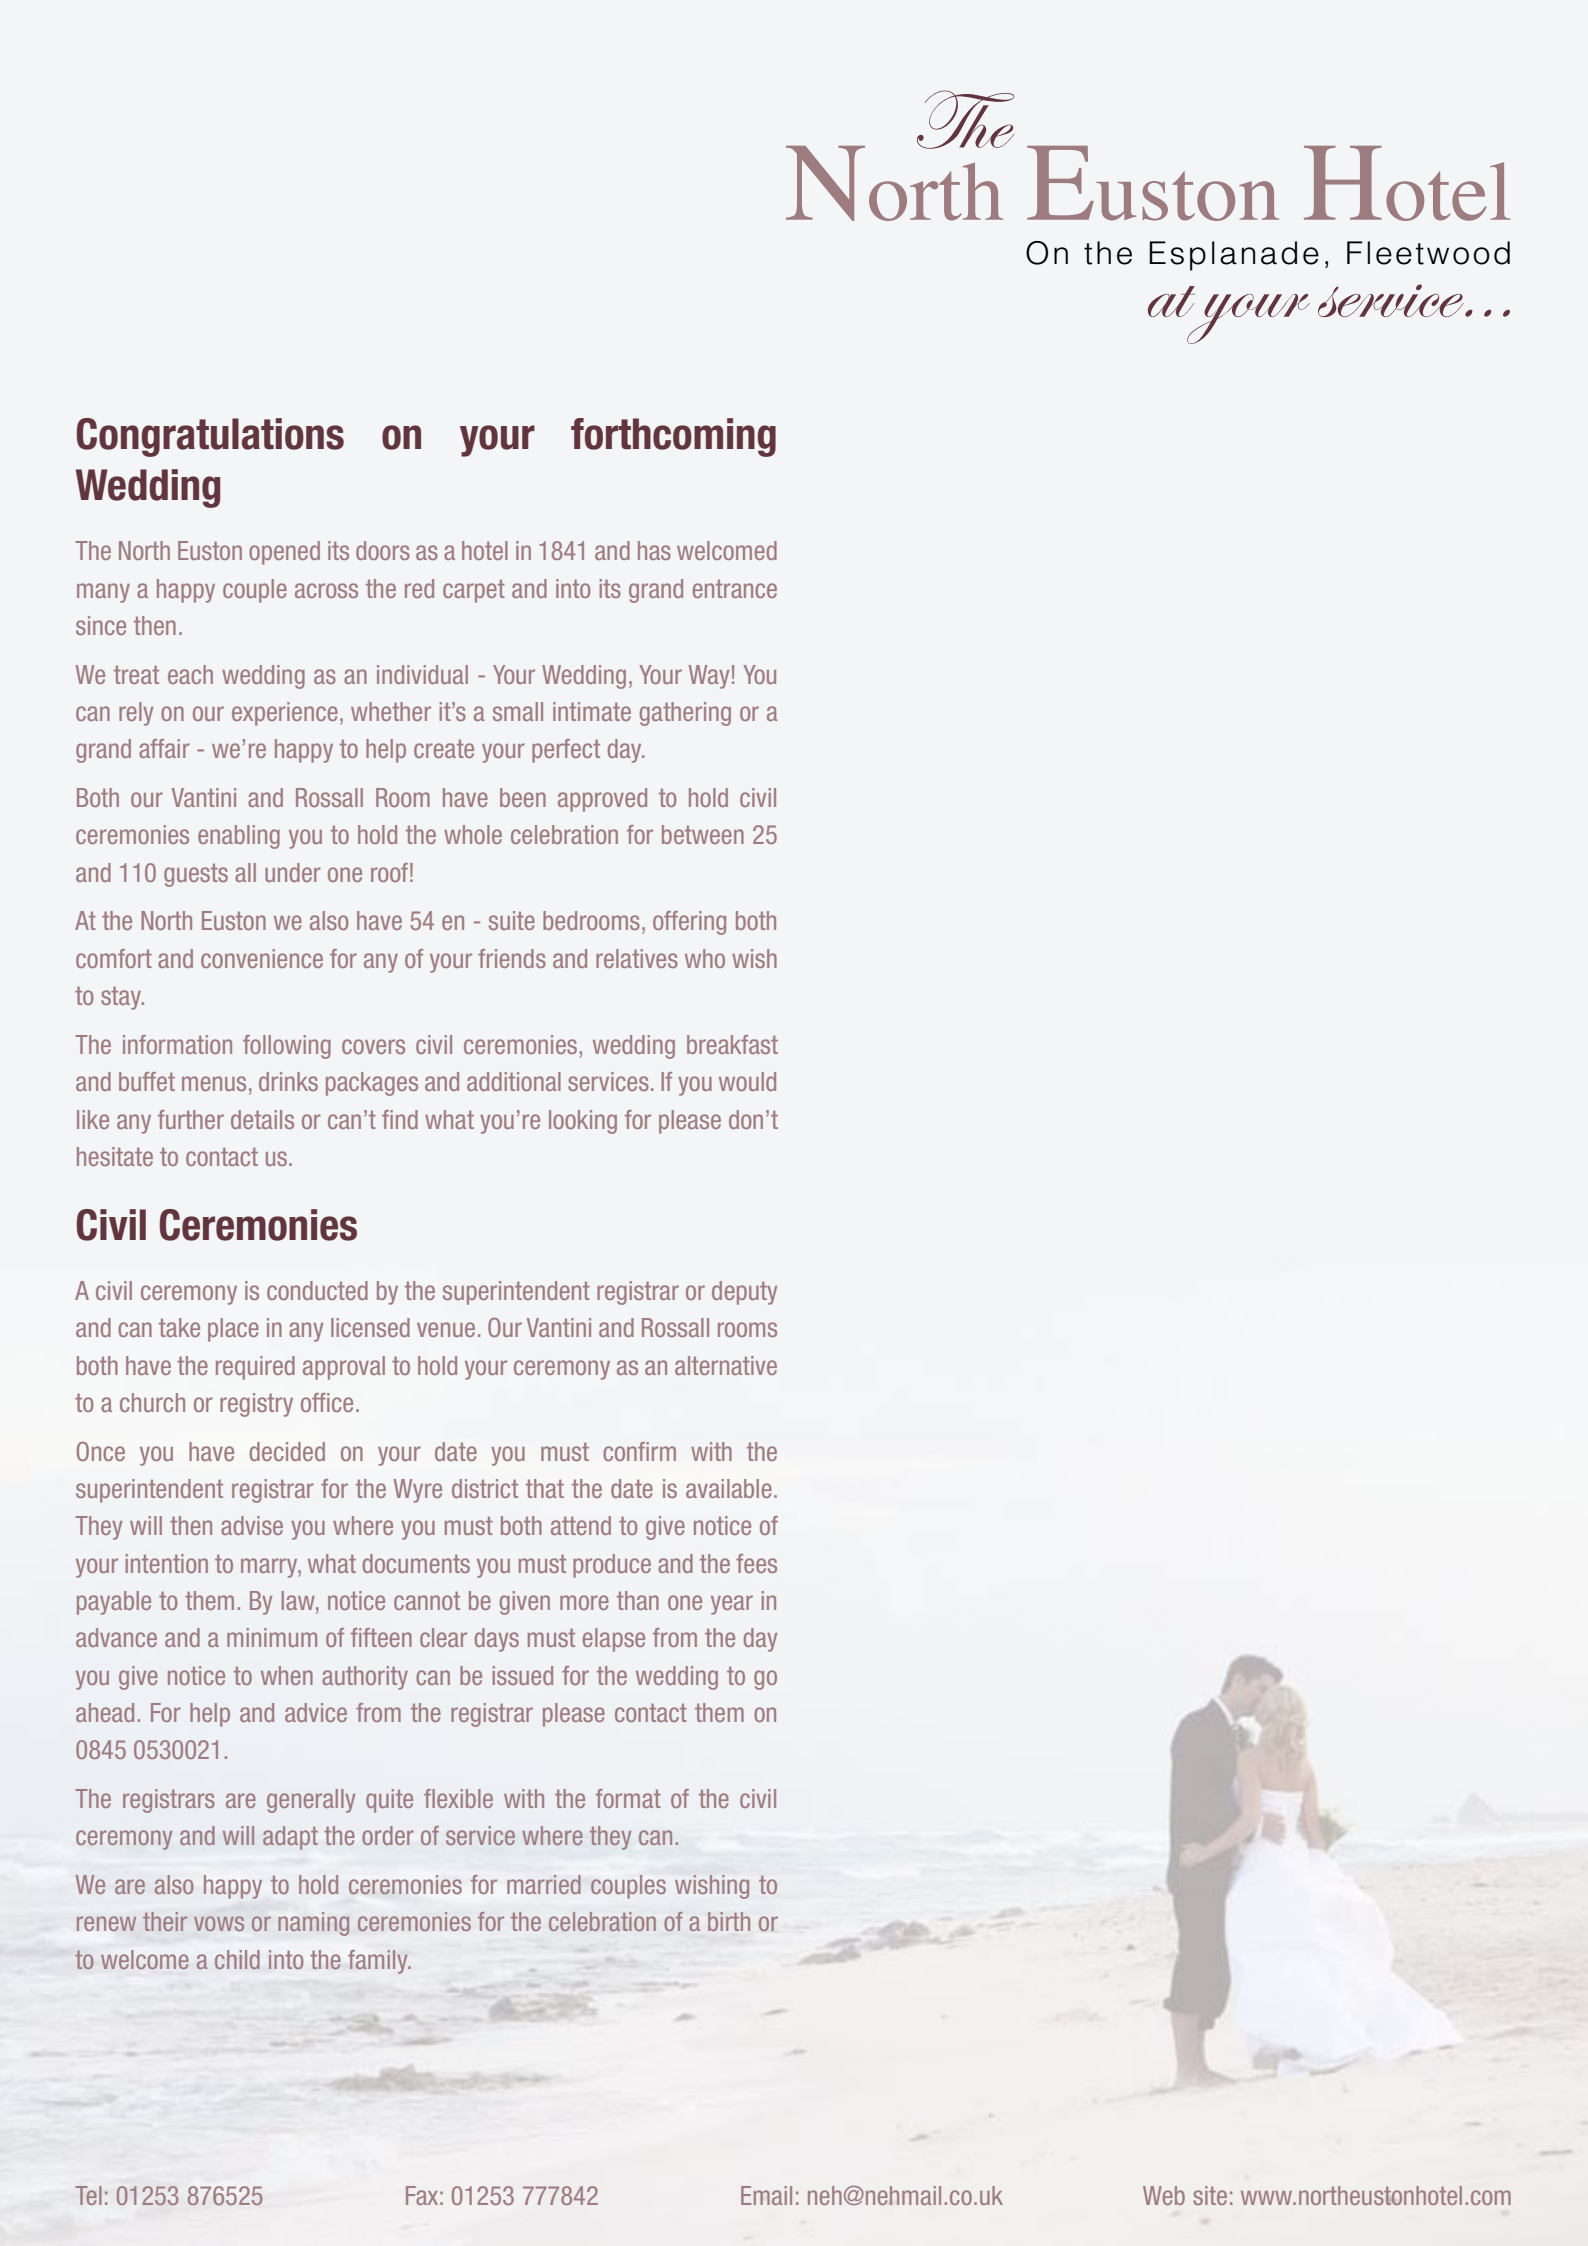

Civil Ceremonies

A civil ceremony is conducted by the superintendent registrar or deputy and can take place in any licensed venue. Our Vantini and Rossall rooms both have the required approval to hold your ceremony as an alternative to a church or registry office.

Once you have decided on your date you must confirm with the superintendent registrar for the Wyre district that the date is available. They will then advise you where you must both attend to give notice of your intention to marry, what documents you must produce and the fees payable to them. By law, notice cannot be given more than one year in advance and a minimum of fifteen clear days must elapse from the day you give notice to when authority can be issued for the wedding to go ahead. For help and advice from the registrar please contact them on 0845 0530021.

The registrars are generally quite flexible with the format of the civil ceremony and will adapt the order of service where they can.

We are also happy to hold ceremonies for married couples wishing to renew their vows or naming ceremonies for the celebration of a birth or to welcome a child into the family.

Wedding Etiquette

These days, most people are less concerned with etiquette of the wedding ceremony and follow a plan that they feel comfortable with. If however you are interested in the etiquette you can see a traditional plan of the top table here,

Best Man
Groom's Father
Bride's Mother
Groom
Bride
Bride's Father
Groom's Mother
Chief Bridesmaid

We will be happy to advise you on the layout of the rest of your tables dependant on which room the celebration is to take place in and how many guests are invited.

Toasts and Speeches

Normally take place at the end of the wedding breakfast and should each take no longer than ten minutes.

After the Bride and Groom have cut the cake, Toast normally proposed by the Bride's father to "The Bride and Groom"

Toast to "Bridesmaids" is proposed by the Bridegroom

The Best Man responds to the Groom's speech on behalf of the Bridesmaids. He should also read out any telegrams and a selection of cards.
