CIVIL CEREMONIES

A civil ceremony is conducted by the superintendent registrar or deputy and can take place in any licensed venue.

Getting married is a very special occasion and choosing your venue is very important, as an alternative to a church or registry office our Rossall and Vantini rooms both have the required approval to hold your ceremony for up to 60 & 110 guests respectively.

Once you have decided on your date you must confirm with the superintendent registrar for the Wyre district that the date is available.

They will then advise you where you must both attend to give notice of your intention to marry, what documents you must produce and the fees payable to them. By law, notice cannot be given more than one year in advance and a minimum of fifteen clear days must elapse from the day you give notice to when authority can be issued for the wedding to go ahead. For help and advice from the registrar please contact them on 0300 1236705.

The registrars are generally quite flexible with the format of a civil ceremony and will adapt the order of service where they can, one of the only restrictions is that there must not be anything religious included

WEDDING ETIQUETTE

These days, most people are less concerned with etiquette of the wedding ceremony and follow a plan that they feel comfortable with. If however you are interested in the etiquette you can see a traditional plan of the top table here,

Chief Bridesmaid, Groom's Father, Bride's Mother, Groom, Bride, Bride's Father, Groom's Mother, Best Man

We will be happy to advise you on the layout of the rest of your tables dependant on which room the celebration is to take place in and how many guests are invited. If you are unsure where best to place your guests in the room, the general rule of etiquette is to seat close family on the tables closest to the top.

Toasts and speeches normally take place at the end of the wedding breakfast and should each take no longer than ten minutes. After the Bride and Groom have cut the cake, the first toast normally proposed by the Bride's father to "The Bride and Groom", followed by a toast to "Bridesmaids" proposed by the Bridegroom. The Best Man responds to the Groom's speech on behalf of the Bridesmaids.
